

Employee Work From Home (WFH) Policy

Company: ABC Technologies Pvt. Ltd.

Policy: Work From Home Policy

Effective Date: January 2026

1. Who Can Request WFH

Employees who have completed their probation period are eligible to request Work From Home.

- WFH may be requested for personal requirements, health-related situations, or other circumstances approved by the manager.
- New employees during their probation period are generally expected to work from the office.
- WFH approval depends on the employee's role and business requirements.
- Employees must have a reliable internet connection and a suitable working environment when working from home.

2. Number of WFH Days

Employees can request up to 8 Work From Home days per calendar month.

- WFH days cannot be carried forward to the following month.
- Employees should plan WFH requests in advance whenever possible.
- The manager may approve fewer days depending on project requirements.

3. WFH Approval Process

Employees must follow these steps to request WFH:

1. Submit a WFH request through the company's employee portal.
2. Select the requested WFH date or dates.
3. Provide a brief reason for the request.
4. Submit the request to the reporting manager.
5. Wait for manager approval.
6. Work from home only after the request has been approved.

For urgent situations, employees should inform their manager directly and submit the formal request as soon as possible.

4. Working Hours

Employees working from home must follow the company's standard working hours:

Working Hours: 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM

- Employees must be available during working hours.
- Employees should attend scheduled meetings and respond to work-related communication.
- A 1-hour lunch break is provided between 1:00 PM and 2:00 PM.
- Employees should maintain the same level of work responsibility and productivity as they would in the office.

Important

WFH is subject to manager approval and business requirements. Employees should contact their reporting manager or HR department if they have questions about the Work From Home policy.
